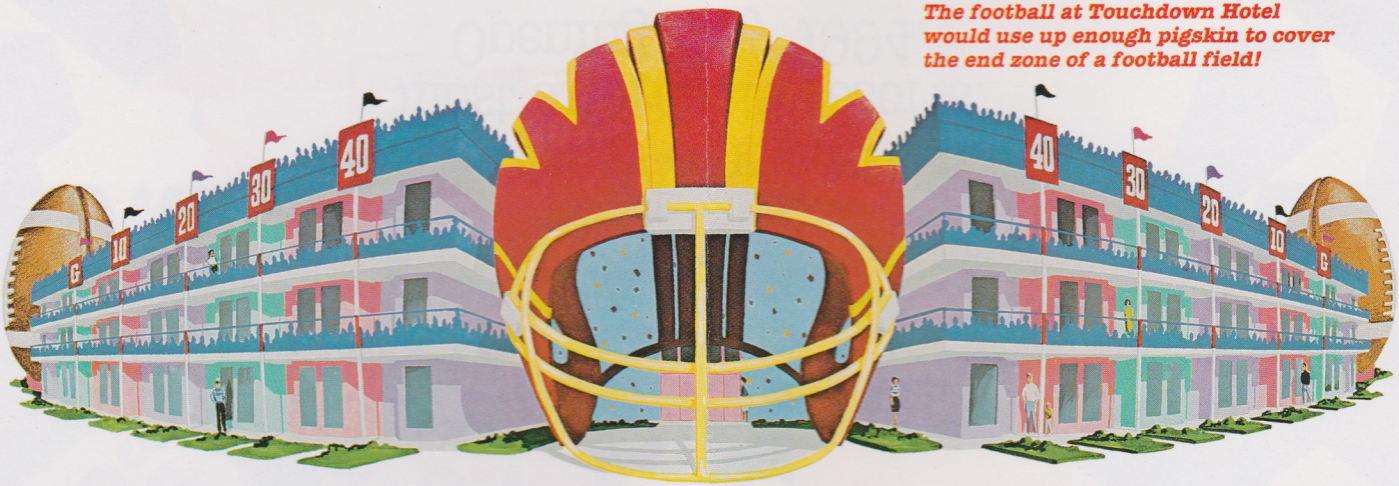
Disney's
All-Star Resorts

Disney's newest,
most affordable resorts.
Opening May 1994.

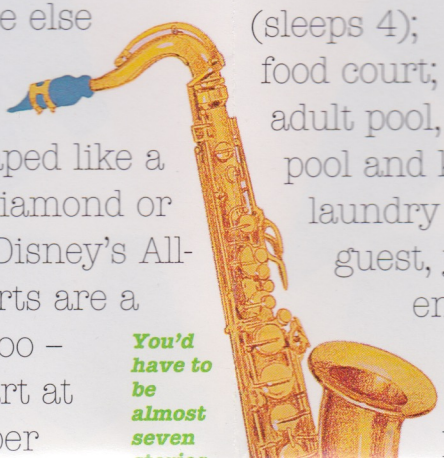


The football at Touchdown Hotel would use up enough pigskin to cover the end zone of a football field!

Now you can have just as much fun at your hotel as you have in the Disney theme parks. Disney's All-Star Resorts are Disney's newest and most affordable resorts. They're the resorts for those who are big on sports and music...and we mean BIG! Giant icons from the worlds of sports and music pop up everywhere — four-story cowboy boots, gigantic tennis racquets and football helmets.

Can you find all the musical notes at Disney's All-Star Music Resort? We lost count around 2,000!

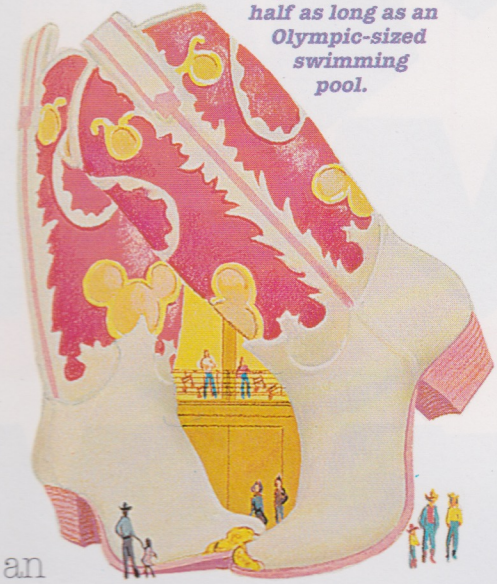
And where else can you swim in a pool shaped like a baseball diamond or a piano? Disney's All-Star Resorts are a big deal, too – rooms start at just $69 per



You'd have to be almost seven

All-Star Music Resort will be easy to find. Just look for the forty-foot saxaphone or the four-story pair of maracas!

One of the cowboy boots at Country Fair could leave a footprint almost half as long as an Olympic-sized swimming pool.



Amenities at Disney's All-Star Resorts include: themed rooms with double beds (sleeps 4); food court; an adult pool, quiet pool and kiddie pool; game arcade; laundry facilities. As a resort guest, you're also entitled to additional Walt Disney World Resort recretall to play this forty-foot sax.

ation, early admission to the theme parks on certain days of the week, special resort guest admission tickets, and complimentary use of the Walt Disney World transportation system.

In November of 1994, keep an ear out for Disney's All-Star Music Resort. As you might guess, the gig here is music — calypso, country, jazz, rock, and Broadway — a resort totally dedicated to the giants of music. And because everything is giant, Disney's Center Court is ace, featuring tennis racquets with grips that are ten feet tall! Imagine the overhead slam...

The surf's in at Surf's Up. Don't biff your board on one of those thirty-eight foot dorsal fins!
